Great Short Story!By Robert Ross-ClunisNicely written and intriguing story of a man suffering from depression and how a supernatural encounter alters his perception of the world. The writing accurately and clearly depicts the internal struggles of depression, helping the reader understand the mind of and empathise with the protagonist. Combined with the author's creative touch, a unique and original storyline is created that will leave you looking forward to the next part of the story!I also loved the part about the lamp!
